From the Pen of the Pastor

Welcome to Emmanuel Baptist Church and our Trinity Youth Weekend. This is time that we set aside to be fed and led in worship by our young people, who work under the creative direction of Jocelyn Mann, our Lay Pastor for Youth. We thank God for what He is doing with and through them and we appreciate you being present to experience their ministry through dance, drama, and music. If you like what you experience, and I am sure that you will, I invite you to join us for Trinity Youth Weekend every third weekend of the month.

This weekend also marks the conclusion of our time with Ministry Interns Aisha Taylor and Ronell Howard. Minister Taylor preaches this weekend's Connection Remix Saturday evening service and Minister Howard preaches this weekend's Sunday noon service. We thank them for the contributions that they have made during their time with us and wish them God's best in their future endeavors.

Some good news...I am excited to remind you about the return of the EBC Health Challenge for 2009. On-site registration begins next weekend, April 25 and 26. This year, the experience has been broadened to include activities beyond weight loss. A nominal $10 registration fee grants you access to 12 fitness classes and 2 nutrition workshops. Cash and other prizes will be awarded. Take the challenge. "Commit to get fit" and invite a friend to join you on the journey.

Last, but not least, I am calling all brothers to step-up and sign-up for the Annual Frontliner's (Men's Ministry) Retreat today. Stop by the parlor to get your questions answered, register, and pay. If you have been in search of a way to deepen your connection to Christ, I encourage you to start here.

I'll see you next week!

Rev. Anthony L. Trufant, Senior Pastor
